of calico at 9 cents per yard.

We are authorized to announce B. P.
Berryman as candidate for Police Judge.
Election Saturday, July 31, 1875.

Wanted.
Five hundred bushels of good wheat at $1.20 per bushel at the Hartford Steam Mill.
Moore & Wize.

Transfers of Real Estate.
The following is the only real estate transfer lodged for record during the week ending May 1, 1875.
Job. S. Arnold to William H. Rice, 75 acres of land on Caney creek. Consideration, $500.

Funeral Notice.
Dr. J. S. Coleman will preach the funeral of Mrs. Sallie Taylor at Green Briar Church, Daviess county, on the 8th Sunday in this month. Also, the funeral of Mrs. Joshua Crow at Oak Grove church, Daviess county, on the first Sunday in June next.

Don't neglect your teeth. If they are decaying, have them cleaned and plugged at once. Dr. Baldwin is the man to do it.
He will be in Hartford on the 10th instant, and will fix your grinders just right, at a fair price, and will guarantee his work. You will find him at the Crown House.

Marriage Licenses.
The following is a list of the marriage licenses issued for the week ending May 1, 1875.
Alfred K. Leach and Miss Alice E. Paxton.
Joseph Smith and Miss Alice Bolling.
Samuel Coy and Miss Mary Jane Cameron.
Alexander C. Russell and Miss Mary Jane Fulkerson.

Tremendous Excitement at the Trade Palace.
E. Small, the Principal of this establishment, has gone east for new goods, and his popular salesman, Larkin Griffin, is selling off the stock on hand at ruinously low prices to make room for the new goods. The Palace is thronged with customers "from early morn till dewy eve."

Superb Fleeces.
One of our correspondents gave an account some time back of the profit in sheep raising as realized by W. D. Coleman, of this county. Mr. Coleman sheared twelve of his sheep last week, and their fleeces weighed in the aggregate 1201 pounds; averaging a little over 10 pounds each. The total weight of four of the wethers, after being sheared, was 780 pounds; average weight 195 pounds.
How is this for a sheep story?

Petty Larceny.
Alexander Wilson was arrested last Saturday evening by Wm. Blankenship, marshal of Beaver Dam, charged with stealing a jar of pickles and a can of pine apples from L. J. Lyon, grocer, of this place. He was taken before Judge Gregory for examination, and was held on a bond of $25.00 to answer at Circuit Court. The proof was pretty strong against him, but the young man proved an excellent character heretofore, and honest, good looking face, and we are loath to believe him guilty.

Captain S. K. Cox, County Clerk, has had a new case made in which to place the Deed Books. It is very convenient, and ornamental as well. Judge Gregory has also had a new desk made for the County Judge's office. It is so arranged as to facilitate the business of the office very much. Messrs. Graves & Cox got up the jobs in both offices, and the workmanship reflects credit upon their skill and ability as mechanics.

The Renter Coal Company.
The stockholders of the Renter Coal Company held their annual meeting here last Saturday, and elected the following officers for the ensuing year:
Dr. W. J. Berry, President; James F.
Collins, E. D. Walker, J. S. Renter, and
R. S. Moseley, Directors; James A.
Thomas, Treasurer, and R. S. Moseley, Secretary. The selections are good ones, and we understand they propose to go to work in earnest soon.

An Intelligent Justice.
A constable living somewhere in the confines of the Green River country, arrested C—, by a virtue of a warrant issued by B—, a justice of the peace, on complaint made by A— that C—was guilty of assault and battery. The warrant was returned before Squire J— for trial, who decided that the prosecution would have to elect which offense they would try the prisoner for, on failing to do so, after some parlying, the case was dismissed and a judgment returned against the Commonwealth for the costs. That constable desires to know how he can collect that execution. He has been advised, as we understand, by some able counsel, to garnish Dick Tate, State Treasurer, and stop enough funds in his hands to pay it off. Next.

Is this March or May?
E. Small has gone east after one of the largest and best assorted stock of goods ever brought to Ohio county. Don't be fooling your money away, save it till he returns, and then you can receive full value for it.

Off to the Convention.
Hon. H. D. McHenry left Monday,
Judge W. F. Gregory and Sheriff T. J.
Smith left Tuesday, and John P. Barrett left to-day for the State Convention at Frankfort.

Sweet Potatoes.
And Tomato slips, Cabbage and Greenhouse plants, from the Greenville Nursery, for sale by
WELLS & WILLIAMS.

Don't forget that Dr. H. Baldwin, of Elizabethtown, one of the best Dentists in Kentucky, will be here on the 10th inst., when he will be prepared to do any kind of work in his line. Remember, all of his work is warranted. He will take rooms at the Crown House.

Make Them Stop It.
Idle boys ought not to be allowed to kill the rice birds, those pretty, vigilant, and industrious police of the garden and orchard. The birds destroy the bugs and worms that deplete upon fruit and vegetables, and they ought to be protected against the murderous enterprise of vicious boys.

The Crow House.
Persons attending the coming session of the Circuit Court, will find it to their advantage to stop at the Crow House. It is near the courthouse, and provides excellent fare, and every other accommodation in the power of the Proprietor will be furnished. An excellent stable will be kept, where horses will be well cared for at 35 cents for hay and corn, and for hay only 25 cents.

Local Option Victories and Defeats.
Local Option triumphed at the following places in this section last Saturday: Hopkinsville, 163 maj.; Garnettsville, 43 maj.; Vine Grove, 3 maj.; Walnut Bottom, Henderson county, by a majority of two to one; Princeton, by 55 maj.; a portion of Greenville, by 3 majority. It was defeated in a part of Greenville; at Henderson by about 600 maj.; Caneyville, about 50 maj.; a portion of Hartford, 36 majority; and at Uniontown, by what majority we have not ascertained. We have not learned the result at Madisonville.

Good Templars' Officers.
Last Thursday night the following officers for the ensuing quarter were elected by Hartford Lodge, No. 12, I. O. G. T.: John L. Case, W. C. T.
Miss Lelia Addington, R. H. S.
L. H. S. to be supplied.
Rev. B. A. Cundiff, W. Chaplain.
Willie Lewis, W. S.
Miss Inez Miller, W. A. S.
Claude Yager, W. F. S.
Harry Taylor, W. Tr.
Miss Mattie Berry, W. M.
D. Ellis Thomas, W. D. M.
Lycurgus Barrett, W. G.
Tom Taylor, W. Sentinel.
John P. Barrett, P. W. C. T.

The May Election.
The election for magistrates and constables passed off quietly in all the precincts of the county, there being no disturbance of any kind anywhere. The following is the result:
Those marked with an * were re-elected.

CANEY PRECINCT, NO. 1.
Magistrates—P. H. Alford* and E. W.
Tilford.
Constable—Enos Bratcher.
Rosine was selected as the voting place hereafter.

COOL SPRINGS PRECINCT, NO. 2.
Magistrates—Adam Brown and D. J.
Wilcox.
Constable—Isaac Brown*.

CENTERTOWN PRECINCT, NO. 3.
Magistrates—Timothy Bennett and W.
P. Renter.
Constable—S. L. Fulkerson.

BELL'S STORE PRECINCT, NO. 4.
Magistrates—Ben Newton* and S.
Woodward.
Constable—Eli Chinn.

FORDSVILLE PRECINCT NO. 5.
Magistrates—C. W. R. Cobb* and J.
L. Burton.
Constable—Polk Gilmore.

ELLIS PRECINCT, NO. 6.
Magistrates—C. S. McElroy* and Jas.
Miller.
Constable—Will Phillips.

LOWER HARTFORD, NO. 7.
Magistrates—A. B. Bennett*. The vote between J. P. Cooper and J. D.
Byers was a tie.

Constable—Warren Maddox.
For sale of whiskey, 110; against, 74; majority for whiskey, 36.

CROWWELL, NO. 8.
Magistrates—Samuel Austin and Mcvin Taylor.
Constable—Perry Crowder.

UPPER HARTFORD, NO. 9.
Magistrates—T. L. Allen and J. M.
Leach.
Constable—F. R. Black*.

SULPHUR SPRINGS, NO. 10.
Magistrates—R. G. Wedding and J. A.
Bennett*.
Constable—A. S. Aull.

BARTLEY'S, NO. 11.
Magistrates—Wm. Cummins and Jackson Yates.
Constable—W. D. Gray.

It will be seen that out of the twenty-two magistrates comprising the old county court, but six were re-elected; and of the eleven constables, only two were honored with re-election.

The "Big Judge" at Rockport was re-elected by a handsome majority.

We incline to the opinion that the new bench of magistrates is a decided improvement on the old one.

Mass Meeting of Birds.
The beautiful golden orioles were holding a national convention on the trees near our office yesterday. There were thousands of them, and they kept up a chattering sufficient to drown all other noises. We suppose they were discussing the weather, which, at this writing, is about as nice winter as we care about taking in ours.

SPRING LICK ITEMS.
THE CANEYVILLE ELECTION.
SPRING LICK, Ky., May 4.
Your correspondent, in company with many of the good yeomen of this vicinity, attended the election at Caneyville on Saturday. The vote polled was not so large as it usually is at August elections.
This, we presume, is attributable in part to the "Local Option question," which created considerable enthusiasm among the people in this precinct.

LOCAL OPTION DEFEATED.
The Local Option, however, was defeated by about forty or fifty votes. The friends of the measure worked and labored diligently for its success, but the friends of King Alcohol rallied to the polls and defeated them.

MAGISTRATES AND CONSTABLES.
There were four candidates for the office of magistrate, and the race was a close one, but resulted in the election of Charles P. Cain, of this place, and J. N.
Eskridge, of Caneyville. Cain, we are glad to report, received a majority over the other aspirants.

For constable, W. H. Brown, esq., the former incumbent, was defeated by one or two votes, Mr. Milligan, his competitor, being the successful candidate.

A TIE VOTE.
We are informed that in the Haynes Precinct, the two candidates for constable received an equal number of votes, and the race will have to be run over.

THE CONTINUED COLD WEATHER
interferes materially with gardening preparations, but little progress has been made in the way of planting corn.

CIRCUIT COURT
is now in session at Leitchfield, his honor, Judge Stuart, presiding. In conversation with a grand jurymen last Saturday, we learned that several indictments were made out and would be reported to the court, a majority of which were against parties engaged in the whisky traffic.

A WEDDING TRIP.
In company with Robert Renfrow, esq., and his two beautiful and accomplished sisters, we paid a visit last Monday to Hardin county, on matrimonial business.
Mr. Renfrow was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to one of Hardin's fairest daughters, Miss Sallie Holt, by the Rev.
Mr. King. After the ceremony we were invited to a sumptuous repast, prepared by Mrs. Holt, the mother of the bride, and to which we all did ample justice.

The next morning we bade the parents of the bride an affectionate adieu, and started on our return to Spring Lick, at which place we arrived at about 2 o'clock p. m., and were greeted by the many friends of the groom. And again we had an invitation to the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Renfrow. This was indeed a pleasant affair, and will doubtless be long remembered by those who had the good fortune of being present. A.

FROM CERALVO.
A Real Lively and Gossipy Epistle.
Correspondence of the HARTFORD HERALD.
CERALVO, Ky., May 3, 1875.

EDITOR HERALD: The farmers around Ceralvo are becoming somewhat disheartened over the gloomy prospects of getting their corn planted. They have made but little progress yet. The long spell of cold weather has prevented them from planting their corn, etc. Notwithstanding, they seem determined to make a strong effort, and if favored with a good season there will be more corn and tobacco raised in this part of the county than ever before made. We'll ink there will be an average crop of wheat on good ground, but some old lands, that were sown late, will yield but little.

HARD TIMES.
"Money is scarce and times are hard."
But the hard times have done a great deal for our little town. They have compelled the idlers and loungers to flee to their homes, and earn their living by work.

IMPROVEMENTS.
I believe that I can faithfully assert that this part of the county is making as rapid strides towards improving their farms, as any locality in the county.

SCHOOLS.
I think our little town can boast of its Sabbath-school, which has been carried on for four years, and through the spring and summer season, without missing a Sabbath.

In our district school we had the services of Prof. W. L. Hawkins for three sessions. Our next school was taught by J. T. Coffman, a young man of our town.

Our last and present teacher is Prof. Paxton, from Cromwell. He taught our winter school, and had the best average in the county, outside of Hartford. He is teaching a school here at this time. He is like the busy bee, "always up, and at work."

CERALVO AND ITS SURROUNDINGS.
Ceralvo is a pleasant little town, situated on Green River, three miles below Rockport. We have two dry goods stores, one kept by S. W. Anderson, the other by E. V. Kimbly & Son; one drug store, by Henry Tinsley; one family grocery, by Alex. Tinsley; one Blacksmith shop, by Kimbly & Tichenor, with A. P. Fogle at the anvil; three tobacco factories—but, under the Grange programme, they are dead property; two physicians, in the persons of Dr. Brentwood Mair and Dr.

J. M. Every; a town-marshal and police Judge, but our judge is not quite as large as the one in Rockport. We also have a justice of the peace, in the person of Henry Tinsley, who is a candidate for re-election, with but four opponents, G. R.
Ashby, John R. Wade, and the two Granger candidates, T. S. Bennett and Perry Renter. Our candidate for constable is S. L. Fulkerson. The Granger held a meeting here last Saturday evening. They had a large attendance.
There were three or four Grangers represented. We had the honor of listening to one of Colonel Shanks' "orations." Also Thomas X. Rowe shot off his big two-barrel gun. And late in the action, Mr.
Hendrix, who had been over in Muhlenberg under the pretense of buying hogs, let off his forty-six pounder, which blasted the mast in the hog-range, for the next two years. Tires.

LETTER FROM CROMWELL.
An Interesting Description of the Ancient Borough.
Correspondence of THE HARTFORD HERALD.
CROMWELL, Ky., May 3.

EDITOR HERALD:—As I have not seen anything in your live paper from this place, I will give your readers a brief history of the town and its business. It is situated, like that famous city on the Tiber, on seven hills, which gives it a commanding view of the historic Green River, which flows majestically past its southern border.

THE FIRST SETTLEMENT.
It was first settled by the late Hon. O.
C. Porter, (more than forty years ago), who was in his day one of the largest land traders in the Green River country.
The first store was opened by a Mr. King, father of W. T. King, of Hartford; but it did not take on the airs of a town until the Honorable Q. C. Shanks, of your town, moved here, under whose magic hand it sprang up as by enchantment.

WHAT SHANKS DID FOR IT.
He built a large steam saw and grist mill, opened a fine store, and run an extensive cabinet shop. To him belongs the honor of building our first tobacco factory. Out of these interests he accumulated so much wealth Cromwell could not contain him, so he emigrated to your city.
From that time to the present, quite a number of gentlemen have tried their fortunes here, with varied success.

HER FIRE RECORD.
She has had her share of fires. She has lost one of the finest merchant mills on Green River, one large tobacco factory, and several residences by this terrible agent.

WHAT SHE HAS NOW.
We have four dry goods stores, three family groceries, and two saloons; two drug stores and three Doctors, one hotel, one livery stable, one wood and blacksmith shop, one school house and a Masonic Lodge.

WHAT THEY COMPLAIN OF.
Our merchants complain of doing as good business as any of their brethren in the country. We have the liveliest tobacco men in the county. Rumor has it that they realized about seventy-five thousand dollars as their share of the spoils of the trade last year.

THE KING OF HORSE JOCKEYS resides here. We have our share of "come day, go day, Lord send Sunday," citizens so common to all large cities.

OUR WOMEN.
are as fair as the fairest. We have more bachelors than any town of its size in Kentucky, (six), all good and old—but, for my sake, don't tell the ladies, and don't tell them (the bachelors), who told you, Mr. Editor. Yours, NEPLUSULTRA.

BEAVER DAM ITEMS.
BEAVER DAM, Ky., May 4
Nothing of much interest has transpired in our midst during the past week, we move along as we previously have, and enjoy life very well.

FINE LUBRICATING OIL.
We notice that the railroad men move with more alacrity since the report has been circulated that they will receive money for the past few weeks' services.

MR. WILL SOUTHERLAND, the polite agent at Owensboro Junction, called to see us the other day. His old friends were happy to see him.

OUT OF SEASON.
We had a slight snow yesterday morning, which caused us to hang our heads again, and order more coal.

CATTLE SHIPMENTS.
Mr. J. A. Taylor shipped two car loads of cattle last Monday night. Mr. Arthur shipped a large lot of fine hogs at the same time.

LACHRYMA.
We are sorry our friend Spangler was not elected last Saturday. We feel that his election would have revealed to us the lost courthouse fund, but now suppose we will never know where it went.

ON THE WAR PATH.
Our friend B— left yesterday for Caneyville, armed with four revolvers.
Look out, boys, for he will shoot, sure.
He says he is determined to show the Caneyville correspondent of the HERALD that he is not easily scared. We are expecting news every moment of his death, and in the event he never returns, we shall feel that we have discharged our duty, for we plead with him not to go.

THE CHALLENGE ACCEPTED.
We have received the challenge of the Hartford Spelling Class, and as soon as convenient, will come over to learn them how to spell. Jeno.

Scotch gingham suits will be worn for summer, but more at watering places, placities, and country wear. Irregular plaids of brown or black are largely imported. Shredded ruffles and knife plait-ing will be the main trimming.

FROM BUFORD.
Buford, Ky., May 4, 1875.
Things are almost in statu quo with us.
No great change in matters, and prospects for the farming community do not seem to brighten at a very rapid rate.
Vegetation is but little more advanced than it was a month ago, though it seems to be making desperate efforts to spread around us its verdant mantle, by taking advantage, apparently, of every ray of sunlight; but Sol evinces a feeling of abashment this spring, by keeping himself so much of the time concealed behind a sable vesture, that his influence has been of no material advantage so far in that respect. Most of the farmers have planted some corn, and some have concluded. "Log rolling too, which was quite an extensive work, is about discontinued for the season.

THE WHEAT CROP
is doing about as well as could be expected, or, rather, more so, considering the great disadvantages for its growth. I do not think that the recent cold spell injured it to any amount, only checking its growth.

LAST YEAR'S TOBACCO.
Some of last year's growing of tobacco seems to be scattered around the country yet, and occasionally an instalment wends its way to our market, from a wagon load up to a "meal sack" full, though the latter way of conveying the crops to market is not so common. But, upon a day not long since, an individual of the female persuasion came into town on horseback, with great eclat at the north entrance of Main street, with a sack well filled with the weed, and inquired for Mr. Barnard, the tobacco merchant, to whose establishment she was directed by one of our merchants, and after a brief negotiation a bargain was made—as Mr. B. does not disdain to make dis-cussive purchases in that line as well as large ones—and the tobacco was weighed, and the party, after receiving a satisfactory remuneration, mounted her steed and departed for her home rejoicing.

MT. CARMEL CHURCH.
Sunday last, Rev. J. S. Coleman filled his regular appointment at Mt. Carmel, and preached to a large and attentive audience, and administered the ordinance of communion. After the conclusion of the service a report of a committee on solicitation for contributions for the repair of the church was made, it not being ready to report on the church meeting day, the Saturday preceding. It reported that it had not been successful in getting the necessary amount to complete the desired work, thereupon Dr. C. with his persuasive eloquence, made an appeal to the church, showing the importance and necessity of such a work, and after the conclusion of his remarks he gave an opportunity for those who could and would to contribute such amounts as they were able, and in a short time more than the calculated amount was subscribed. The work will begin at once, and we expect to have one of the neatest houses of worship in any country. We will say the Dr. is good in the business of contribution.

THE SHERIFF AROUND.
We had the pleasure of a visit from our sheriff one day last week. He was looking well, and his smiles were scattered profusely around, as he met many of his old friends and acquaintances. We judge from the manner in which he perambulated our streets that he must have been on a mat-trip-money-al tour, but as he was rather reticent in regard to the matter, we can't speak with any degree of certainty as to his success. Anyway, we hope him much luck, and advise him to keep trying.

A QUIET ELECTION.
Our district election went off quietly on last Saturday. Two magistrates were elected without opposition, but there was some little contest for the office of constable, though Uncle Eli Chinn won the race by some considerable majority.
MANFRED.

The Champion Hen.
Mrs. Wm. Smith, of Warren county, Ky., has the most valuable chicken—hen known in those parts. She is an old-fashioned dominatrix, and lays two eggs per day, both of which are enclosed in one sack of fibrous envelope about the size of a goose egg. This hen is not only noted for her ovarian qualities, but makes as much fuss as a game rooster at the break of day. Beat that.
